

Overview of Social-Emotional Development and the Role of Integrated Behavioral Health in Enhancing Services for Young Children in Primary Care

Date and Time: October 17, 2023, 8:00 am – 12:30 pm

Location: White Stag Block, 70 NW Couch St. Portland; Information About Parking In Calendar

7:30 – 8:00 – Coffee/Pastries/Registration

- 8:00 – 8:15 Oregon Pediatric Improvement Partnership (OPIP) Introductions and Agenda Review
Acknowledgement and Gratitude to Health Share of Oregon
- 8:15 – 8:25 Setting the Context: Why Are Integrated Behavioral Health A Key Part of The System That Is of Focus in The System-Level Metric and Child-Level Data on Services Received.
- 8:25 – 8:55 Overview of Social-Emotional Development And “Clues” Related to Delays That Primary Care Likely Has Right Now.
- 8:55 – 9:50 Assessments by Integrated Behavioral Health Staff & Clinical Decision-Making Frameworks Following Risk Assessment.
APPLICATION OF LEARNING: Determining Assessment and Response.

9:50 – 10:05 – Break (Coffee/Pastries)

- 10:05 – 11:20 Intervention Strategies for Impacting Early Childhood Social-Emotional Delays: Translating Research Based Therapies into Your Practice.
- 11:20 – 11:45 APPLICATION OF LEARNING: Interventions within Clinical Contexts
- 11:45 – 12:05 Guidance on Billing from Clinical Perspective, Areas to Obtain Clarity Within Your Practice.
- 12:05 – 12:25 Referring Externally and Engaging Families: Assets in Portland Metro Region, Overview of Birth to Five Treatment Modalities, Strategies to Identify Best Match Referrals, Learnings in Engaging Families
- 12:25 – 12:30 Wrap Out & Next Steps

12:30 – Take Home Lunch Provided

Faculty for the Meeting: Colleen Reuland, OPIP Director, Lydia Chiang, MD, OPIP Medical Director, Andrew Riley, PhD OPIP Faculty with Specialized training in behavioral therapies for children and families across the range of behavioral, developmental, and medical complexity. Dr. Riley directs Integrated Behavioral Health for General Pediatrics at OHSU and trains psychology interns, postdocs, and pediatrics residents to provided integrated care. Dr. Riley has worked with OPIP on previous trainings and implementation support to primary-care based integrated behavioral health.

This Learning Session is financially supported by Health Share of Oregon in collaboration with the health plan partners of Health Share of Oregon that contract with primary care sites.