

Overview & Strategies for Primary Care Providers to Address Social-Emotional Health Issues in Young Children: Webinar Series

Webinar #1: November 13th 7:30-8:30 am | Registration Link:

<https://us06web.zoom.us/meeting/register/tZ0qdeitrz4vH9fZggXyc7MhMazy0o1XjsS3>

Defining Social-Emotional Health in Young Children, and Identifying Children with Follow-Up Needs

Setting the Stage & Why This is State Priority: Primary care providers role in addressing social-emotional health issues in young children:

- Clinical recommendations and why improvements are needed
- Alignment with a Coordinated Care Organization Incentive Metric

Overview of Social-Emotional Health in Young Children & Strategies to Identify Children with Follow-Up Needs

Actionable Tips & Tools: Review of strategies primary care providers may use to implement Bright Futures/EPSTT-recommended approaches for identifying children with social-emotional health needs.

Examples of implementation in primary care will be shared.

Webinar #2: November 20th 7:30-8:30 am | Registration Link:

<https://us06web.zoom.us/meeting/register/tZctcu2ggz0pG9W9aRi-hMtfnh7DLSKyoKSY>

Primary Care Provider Strategies to Address Common Social-Emotional Health Issues in Young Children: Giving Anticipatory Guidance, Education, and Supports to Parents

Actionable Tips & Tools: Review of strategies that primary care providers may use to provide supports to parents of young children identified with social-emotional health needs.

- Specific tools and talking points to address some of the most common social-emotional health issues.
- Topics may include how to address the following: disruptive behavior, early childhood anxiety, sleep issues, and toilet training.

Webinar #3: December 4th 7:30-8:30 am | Registration Link:

<https://us06web.zoom.us/meeting/register/tZYucOmtqDssHdNQ9y-cYsSNss582nyyrsVi>

Follow-up to Webinar #2: Primary Care Provider Strategies to Address Common Social-Emotional Health Issues in Young Children

Examples of implementation will be shared: Primary care providers giving anticipatory guidance, education, and supports to parents of young children identified with social-emotional health needs.

Behavioral Health Support Pathways for Young Children Needing Issue-Focused Interventions

Actionable Tips & Tools: Review of strategies to identify best-match behavioral health supports, summary of Specialty Behavioral Health services within Health Share of Oregon network.

Examples of implementation in primary care will be shared.

Final Webinar: December 11th 7:30-8:30 am | Registration Link:

<https://us06web.zoom.us/meeting/register/tZMpcuiozr4pGtbyN6OeyJbAvofSqnKm65bT>

Hearing from Primary Care Providers and Opportunity for Questions: Lessons Learned from Primary Care Sites on Specific Implementation Strategies to Enhance Services for Young Children Identified with Social-Emotional Health Issues

- Presentations from primary care providers enhancing issue-focused interventions in their sites: Key strategies, learnings, successes and barriers, and tips for other primary care providers.
- Question and Answer